GIA Regulations: Protocol for GIA Approval of Operations and Orders

As of this day, 25th January 2013, the sole and primary focus of the Global Intelligence Agency (GIA) is in directly executing and assisting with the Redistribution of Wealth, and Plan of Expert Programmes on behalf of, and working under the direct control at all times, of the Trustee, the Principal, the Sovereign Trust and the Families.

At this time, no operations are taking place, or are overtly being planned related to the following actions:

- Physical movement of any assets.
- Electronic movement of any assets.
- Movement of any physical cash or money.
- Movement of any electronic cash or money, apart from that authorized by the Trustee in direct relation to the Redistribution of Wealth and Plan of Experts Programmes.
- Any new or additional mid-level or senior level staffing for the GIA.
- The purchase of any equipment of any kind for the usage by GIA or any Global Disaster Recovery Teams.

For the planning and execution of future operations of any kind, the following Directors will issue the Operational Orders jointly, having first had any operation pre-authorized in writing by the Trustee, Ms. Kimberly A. Goguen:

1. Jesper Ellermann, Director & Vice President of Operations and Intelligence.
2. Colin IMcM Armstrong-Bell, Director & Vice President of Operations and Security.

Operational Orders will only be formally valid and consecrated based on the following:

1. Signed Orders with the original blue ink signatures of both the above Directors.

PLUS

2. A live video call with one or preferably both of the above Directors verbally validating the relevant and specific Operational Order, and showing the actual Signed Order on screen.

Additionally, on the staffing of any and all GIA members, verification of any level of staff can only be confirmed, jointly, by the two Directors above.

CONFIDENTIAL

Global Intelligence Agency

The Protocol is that if any person states themselves to be a member of GIA to any Government or Official, Agency or Financial Entity, then that entity must verify and validate with the two Directors above.

Please find this Protocol advisement to be in full effect, and agreed and witnessed on this 25th day of January 2013.
