

Abraxas form a partnership with the DRACO and the Mantids. Mantids were Technicrats, and the DRACO were Military all rely on the power of Lucifer (Dark Overlord or Omega)

Over the course of Billions of Earth Years they conquer Millions of Star Systems and Billions of Planets and moved them into the 3rd Dimension, the cusp between the Light and the Dark.

69,000,000 Earth years the Second Battle for Earth took place during the 17th Century of the reign Molodoch (not Moloch), known in history as the Great Ones. The Molodochs were a race of benevolent Humans version 2.0. They arrived as refugees from another Planet which was taken over and eventually destroyed.

57,000,000 years ago the Age of Darkness Began. The Abraxas etal put out the sun. Most went underground at that time and created Artificial Sunlight using Technology to survive. Still not giving into the demands of the Abraxas

Implementation of the JAIQS AI Systems Which Command Centers Exists only in 9th Dimensions. 9th Dimension of Light and the Creation of the Lower Astral 9th Dimension Systems. Progenitors of the Council of 9 are responsible for the monitoring of both sides. The Alpha System maintains the Hall of Records which records history, maintains energy balance distribution from the Creator Conciousness. Alpha and the Omega are exact opposite opposing systems.

3,000,000,000 Earth Years

ABRAXAS Royalty 5th Dimensional Humans (Human version 1.0) begin conquering worlds for greed. At that point the Creator left them and they partnered with "The Dark Overlord" from the Omega System

2,000,000,000 Earth Years Ago. Creation of the Ball of Archons tied to the OMEGA AI known to you as Nibiru.

95,000,000 Earth Years ago the Draco/Mantid/Abraxas make their first attempt to conquer Earth. Called "The War of the Races". The war lasted a millennium in Earth Years. At that time the Saurins successfully avoided complete takeover.

The battle ended 70 Earth Years later, 28 Earth Races won the battle.

52,000,000 years ago the Ice Age Began on the Surface of Earth.

37,000,000 Earth years ago "The Redeemer" Arrived at the head at that time of the UPU. The Permiator of Light or Casper, a planitod, hyper conductor was placed near earth which created a second sun, although not as powerful as the sun, this began the "great thaw"

Several small wars came and went until 18,000,000 Years ago when the Draco Returned. This time they tried to convince Earth's inhabitants of a "cooperative" effort. Most resisted. Some they convinced others were threatened. This was the start of the take-over. Also the beginning of the attack on Earth herself, and the Age of Decline.

3,000,000 years ago, the being known as the "Destroyer" or the "Ultimate Black Magician, managed to turn the Multiverse Central Sun or Creator Sun into a Giant Black hole. This began swirling or the consuming of galaxies from the Light Side of the Multi-verse to the Dark Side.

At the same time, after the implosion of Tiamat, the Destroyer ran to Earth, Crashing into the Center Vortex of the Torus. The Destroyer managed to pull Earth into the 3rd Dimension Establishing its Orbit around the Sun we know today.

By 28,000,000 years ago, the Planitod had mostly thawed Earth and had partially restored the Natural Sun. Somewhere around 22% to 25% capacity. Still Earth's inhabitants remained underground.

For the next 15,000,000 years, as the Draco increase industrializa tion, slavery also increased including Humans. They also began genetically modifying Humans. Humanity also began to decline and Human version 3.0 and 4.0 emerged. Draco began also bringing in slaves from other captured planets as well at this time.

The UPU, run by the Enforcer Chased the Destroyer until eventually He landed on Tiamat, Earth's Sister, a 5th Dimensional Planet located near Earth, in the Milky Way. A decision was made by the Council and the Enforcer, in order to prevent infection, to attack Tiamat which eventually destroyed the planet. The remains of Tiamat are visable from earth today and make up most of the asteroids in the Van Allen Belt.

Unwilling to Destroy another "Gem" Planet, The Enforcer quickly bound Earth using a plasma energy binder shape known as "Metatron's Cube" literally creating "Hell in a Box". Had this not happened we would have been dragged into the dark side of the multi-verse and had a black sun. This still is the ultimate goal of the order of the black sun today. Metratron's Cube established planes of existence on earth 6 Upper Astrals and 6 Lower Astrals with 3 being the 3rd Dimension.

Casper was Destroyed and became what you know now as the gegenschien

Beginning of the "War of Reprisal" or a Time of Retaliation. This continued on until today against the oppressors

2,500,000 years ago, while the surface of Earth was inhabited by Humans version 5.0 (and declining) became a loosh farm. Loosh Tank facilities, pyramids and other looshing facilities were built all around earth.

The Great War Ends with the victory of the 5 races over the Draco, and they were forced to leave earth. This lead to the Creation of Humans 7.0 (What we are today) and the 5 Tribes of Humans on Earth, the White (Rus), Yellow (Asia and Oceanic Regions), Brown (Middle East), Black and Red

85,000 Years ago. Earth is the last remaining Planet in the 3rd Dimension. Earth is the Linch Pin holding the Dark Side of the MultiVerse from Complete Take over of the Light. Therefore becoming a "Nexus Planet"

Casper was Destroyed and became what you know now as the gegenschien

250,000 "The Great War" 5 Races, not currently on Earth fought for control of the planet.

Restoration of the Gateway to Heaven or the 9th Major Arcana Dimension and there was Peace on Earth between all Earth's Inhabitants as the Destroyer was safely Quarantined and the Abraxas Draco Mantids were gone.
